Nunavummi
Reading Series

The Nunavummi Reading Series is a Nunavut-developed series that supports literacy learning while teaching readers about the people, traditions, and environment of the Canadian Arctic.

Level 15

- 40–100 pages
- Fiction books are usually chapter books
- Readers are exposed to unfamiliar contexts and multiple perspectives
- Variety in genres (such as mysteries, fantasies, biographies, guide books) is seen more frequently

16

- Wide variation in book length
- Books explore topics that are less familiar to readers and expose readers to different perspectives related to ability, ethnicity, language, and culture
- Problems in fiction books are more complex
- Variety in genres (such as mysteries, fantasies, biographies, guide books) is seen frequently

Level 17

- Wide variation in book length
- Information is presented in a variety of text features
- Readers are exposed to genres that require high-level processing, including literary classics, myths and legends, fantasy, and poetry
- Topics extend the reader's knowledge and broaden global understanding
