Hunat Aliagijatka
(What I Like to Do)

TOPIC

Skills and Interests

LENGTH

1 Lesson
(1 Hour)

Essential Question

What are some activities you like to do?

Lesson Overview

In this lesson, the teacher encourages students to make connections between their personal experiences and the book Hunat Aliagijatka (What I Like to Do). The lesson requires the hands-on active participation of the students and teacher.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

- ☞ Hunat Aliagijatka (What I Like to Do)
- ☞ Chart paper or whiteboard space
- ☞ Open space to play Simon Says
- ☞ Activity worksheet: Hunat Aliagijatka (What I Like to Do)
- ☞ Drawing utensils (crayons or markers)

LEARNING CONNECTION

The students will think about what activities they like to do or are interested in doing. This builds on their understanding of the book Hunat Aliagijatka (What I Like to Do), which introduces some vocabulary for children's various skills and interests.

READING VOCABULARY

Drawing, hunting, playing outside, building, helping, climbing.

PRE-LESSON PREPARATION

1. Photocopy the Hunat Aliagijatka (What I Like to Do) activity worksheet for each student.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Class discussion about activities each student likes to do.

Class discussion about the book.

Simon Says game.

Completing Hunat Aliagijatka (What I Like to Do) activity worksheet.

LESSON PLAN: WHAT I LIKE TO DO

1. Before reading the book, ask the students to share the different activities they enjoy doing and why.
2. Read the book Hunat Aliagijatka (What I Like to Do) to the students.
3. Talk with the students about the different activities in the book.

“Hunauvat ilangit hulilukaarutit uvani taiguagakhami Hunat Aliagijatka?”

Answers should include: drawing, hunting, playing outside, building, helping, climbing.

☞ Record the list of activities on chart paper or the whiteboard.

4. Explain to the students that they are going to show what they know about the activities in the book by playing a game. Ask the students to find a spot in the classroom where they can stretch out their arms all the way without touching anyone, and then face the teacher. Explain the rules of Simon Says to all students, even those who have played it before.

“Ublumi ulapqiniaqtugut atilingmik ‘Simon Uqaqtuq’. Hivulliuniaqtunga. Taiqqarniaqtatka atiit ilanginnik hulilukaarutitik taiguapaktaptingnik taiguagakhami aallaniglu alianaqtunik hulilukaarutitik. Pinnguarniaqtahi nutqangaluhiluunniit, naalaglugu tiliurutigijamnik.

Imailiguma ‘Simon Uqaqtuq,’ tiliurutigiyara pinnguarniaqtaqhi, kihimi uqanngitkuma imaa ‘Simon Uqaqtuq,’ hulijukhaunngittuhi. Imaatut, uqaruma, Simon uqaqtuq, “majuarit”, majuannguaqtukhaujutit. Imaalunniit, uqaruma, ‘Simon Uqaqtuq “numirit,”” numiqtukhaujuhi.

Kihimi uqanngitkuma ‘Simon Uqaqtuq’ imaatut, ‘iqalukhiurit,’nutqangajukhaujutit! Ingutaaruvit uqanngitkuma ‘Simon Uqaqtuq’ anitauniaqtutit. Apiqhuutikhaqqaqhi?”

5. Optional: Play a game of charades with the students. Have students take turns acting out an activity they read about in the book, or one that isn’t in the book but that they are interested in. The other students try to guess the activity. Make sure each student gets a turn to act out an activity.
6. After the activity, have the students choose one of the activities that was performed in the game or shown in the book, or let them choose another one that they like. Distribute the Hunat Aliagijatka (What I Like to Do) activity worksheet and have the students draw a picture of themselves doing the activity. Read the sentence starter at the bottom of the page with them.

SHARING AND DISPLAYING (CLASSROOM REINFORCEMENT)

1. Combine all the drawings into a book titled Hulijumajukpita (What We Like to Do).
1. Add the finished book Hulijumajukpita (What We Like to Do) to the classroom library.
