(1 Hour)

Essential Question

What are some activities you like to do?

Lesson Overview

In this lesson, the teacher encourages students to make connections between their personal experiences and the book What I Like to Do. The lesson requires the hands-on active participation of the students and teacher.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

- ☞ What I Like to Do (ፍገልገሎች)
- ☞ Chart paper or whiteboard space
- ☞ Open space to play Simon Says
- ☞ Activity worksheet: What I Like to Do (ፍገልገሎች)
- ☞ Drawing utensils (crayons or markers)

LEARNING CONNECTION

The students will think about what activities they like to do or are interested in doing. This builds on their understanding of the book What I Like to Do, which introduces some vocabulary for children's various skills and interests.

READING VOCABULARY

Drawing, hunting, playing outside, building, helping, climbing.

PRE-LESSON PREPARATION

1. Photocopy the What I Like to Do (ፍገልገሎች) activity worksheet for each student.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Class discussion about activities each student likes to do.

Class discussion about the book.
